JERRY FROM KERRY COMING

Jerry from Kerry will be at the Alhambra, Monday night. It is a funny musical farce comedy and va-deville attraction, in which a cheerful, comic character is the central figure. This announcement will be welcome news to all classes of theater goers. The interest in the laughable, diverting and humorous incidents, events and happenings of this comedy never ceases or flags, and its success has been little short of amazing. Undoubtedly the profuse comedy it contains has had much to do with securing popular favor, and the scenes and adventures incidents hustling in animated action, bristling in effervescent humor, bubbling with unadulterated mirth and permeated with startling novelties, quaint originality in catchy music, and elaborate costuming and presented by a cast of the very best and highest salaried artists possible to secure, have all contributed to its phenomenal success. This company also carry their own superior uniformed concert band and orchestra, which is a special feature. Don't miss the free band concert at noon and 7:30.

COUNTY OFFICIAL PAPER.

Saturday, January 19, 1907.

D. E. O'KEEFE.....EDITOR AND PROPRIETOR

The best way to stop a wagging tongue is to let it wag until people are tired of listening to it.

Have a bright bouquet of flower in each room of your home to cheer and brighten it and its inmates.

Assemblyman Jury is making a splendid record at Sacramento. He is very popular and one of the leaders of that body.

No county in the state has a better or brighter future than San Mateo County. It has natural advantages that appeal to the home seeker. Its population will double within two years.

When men build a new boat and wish to test its strength the turn its prow up stream against the current. They do not let it drift with the tide. So it is with our lives. If we wish to try our strength we must turn our faces to the current and face the tide.

David Starr Jordan favors the Japanese. This is little wonder. He is paid a nice salary of $10,000 a year and also gets large fees for lecturing and does not come in competition with the little brown men. If he were compelled to compete with the Japs he no doubt would be singing another tune.

The life of the world is strenuous, and the door to the home should shut out the storm and stress, but it should not shut out new and wholesome and inspiring influences. It should stand wide in hospitable welcome to friends. The home life that is narrow and selfish is dull and enervating.

CIVIL SERVICE EXAMINATIONS

The Civil Service examination for a rural delivery carrier will take place this afternoon in this city. Mr. Lovie has several applications on file.

BARBERS ADOPT NEW PRICES

The local barbers have at last found it necessary to make a little raise in their prices. While doing so, however, they have used much consideration inasmuch as they have not raised the price of hair-cutting, deeming the price now charged, 25c, enough for a working man to pay. A carefully drawn up agreement has been prepared and signed by each barber promising to pay a forfeit of $50 for infringement upon any of the items included in the list, so the prices as stated will be lived up to without exception, commencing next Monday of Jan. 21st. Following is the list of prices.

Hair cutting, 25 cents.
Childrens hair cutting 25 cents.
Shingling, 25 cents.
Shampoo, 25 cents.
Egg shampoo, 35 cents.
Face massage, 25 cents.
Shaveing, 15 cents.
Sundays and Holidays, 25 cents.
Full beard trimming, any style, 15 cents.
Mustache curled, 5 cents.
Neck shaved, 5 cents.
More than one hot towel each, 5c.
Tonic (any kind) 10 cents.
Seafom, 15 cents.

He also lays claim to being an "old Californian" having been Rector of the parish in Stockton thirty odd years ago. is today indispensable on the dressing table of gentlewoman or gentleman. Not only does a Pompeian Massage perfectly cleanse the skin, but it removes wrinkles and blackheads, takes out stiffness of the facial muscles, animates the tissues, and makes the flesh firm and solid. Men use Pompeian Cream after shaving—it flexes the muscles and takes away shaving soreness. Most women recognize the value of this preparation in maintaining a clear and healthy skin.

DEATH OF A PIONEER

WILLIAM LITTLEJOHN DIES AT THE AGE OF 92 YEARS.

Erected the First House in Redwood City and Built the First Mill, and Father of First White Child Born Here.

William Littlejohn, one of the oldest and most respected pioneers of Redwood City passed away at 9:30 o'clock Thursday evening. He had been ailing for some time. Up to his late illness he enjoyed perfect health.

Mr. Littlejohn was born in the Parish of Brooklyn, Devonshire, England, October 15, 1844, a son of Emanuel and Nancy (Gilbert) Littlejohn. After the death of Emanuel Littlejohn, his widow married again, while William was still a child, but at the age of 14 he came to the United States, with his grandfather, James Littlejohn, who settled in Franklin Co., N. Y., in 1828. There he followed farming for many years, training his grandson along the same lines of industry, and when the latter had arrived at manhood he took up a quarter section of government land, upon which he put many improvements. Later he sold his property and moved to Burlington, Vermont, where he learned the Cabinet Makers trade, and subsequently became an employee in a piano manufactory. In 1850 he was attracted by the opportunities offered to young men by the opening up of the West and decided to cast his lot amid new surroundings in a new country. Coming by way of the Isthmus of Panama, he arrived at San Francisco and immediately took the course of the many thousands who were then flocking to California, going to the American River. Mining, however, did not appear so attractive as it had done from the easy range of vision embodied in the golden dreams of the East, and after one season he gave it up and returned to San Francisco, where he engaged in carpenter work until 1852. In that year his steps led him to a little town called Embarcadero, situated in San Mateo Co., and out of that small beginning has grown Redwood City.

After some time Mr. Littlejohn decided to snake this his home, building a house for himself which was the first house in Redwood City, though there had been a few shacks erected previous to that time. He at once found employment by building mills, one of the first put up in this district being called Dennis Martin on land now owned by Senator Stanford. The ground upon which Mr. Littlejohn erected his own house is now occupied by the Sequia Union High School. Not finding as much employment at his trade as was desirable, Mr. Littlejohn commenced the building of vessels, later building one for himself which he called the B. G. Whiting, a ship of 17 tons capacity and which is still in use upon the bay, an evidence of his superior workmanship. For three years after this ship was built his owner utilized it in carrying shingles and lumber to the city, this being one of the great lumber points of that day. As the influx of population increased in Redwood City, Mr. Littlejohn found the building of houses becoming more profitable, therefore he returned to his former occupation, many of the houses now standing being the work of his hands. He was one of the first contractors of the town and has assisted literally in its upbuilding, business blocks as well as residences evidencing his skill and industry. Great changes have taken place since his advent into this locality, as when he first came to the spot there were only three white families here: George Thatcher who conducted a small store; Peter Tyler, a calker of vessels; and Lead McCleod, a boat builder. The first house of worship of which this city could boast was that of the Congregational Church to the erection of which Mr. Littlejohn gave considerable financial aid. A unique feature of the early days in Redwood City in regard to educational developments is one preserved only in memory, the great oak tree which served as the first schoolroom for the children of this pioneer settlement having been long since displaced by the conventional building. The first school was organized by Professor Philip, who came into the neighborhood in 1861, and having no building wherein to meet with his pupils he placed a table under the spreading limbs of an oak tree and called his school to order with the hilly skies arching above the green leaves and the breath of the salt sea in the air about. Many of the boys perched while pursuing their lessons descending with more or less obedience at the masters call to recitation. Later a room in the house of Mr. Littlejohn was given over to this purpose, the school numbering then about 15 boys, and after several years of borrowing practice of the day of their needs fell into disuse and became only an episode in their pioneer experiences.

Early in the history of this City Mr. Littlejohn bought 35 acres of land, but eventually sold all but one block. Upon this he has built a handsome residence surrounded by the fruit trees of all kinds, making a peaceful and Arcadian abode, where he is passing the remainder of his life. His wife, who was in maidenhood Emma, daughter of Patrick

Stay by the Home Paper

It is the local press which serves you in every emergency. There you go in trouble. It is there you go in prosperity. If you want to loan any manufacturing enterprise, any railroad project, for the development of your town, for your lodge to increase your influence, or if your lodge desires to add to its membership or to erect a new hall or in any way advance its interests, the local press is immediately appealed to for help. So it is with our churches. If it is a picnic or a festival, a new carpet or an organ, the local press is found to be useful in furthering every good object. If a raid is to be made on sin by the ambassadors of Christ, the columns of the local paper are used freely and gratuitously in advertising the revival or protracted meeting. The candidates and politicians find also the importance of the local press.

Clearly there are many reasons why the local press should be cultivated. Yet in spite of all these facts the people most interested in the local paper are sometimes the last to give it their support and are frequently known to take several metropolitan papers and shut out their local paper altogether. If there is anything in the argument about the advantages of home trade, surely it makes a strong appeal on behalf of the local press, because the money for the labor is always expended where the paper is printed and if paid out with one hand for subscriptions, advertising or job work it comes into the other hand, and thus remain with you. If by any means you freeze out your local paper and leave yourself at the mercy of the foreign, you would find out more fully than words or arguments could explain why the local paper should be cultivated.

NOTICE TO ARCHITECTS

Inviting Competitive Plans, Designs and Specifications for proposed New Court House Building at Redwood City.

Office of the Clerk of the Board of Supervisors of the County of San Mateo, State of California, Redwood City, California, December 3, 1906.

The Board of Supervisors of San Mateo County invites certificated architects to submit original designs plans and specifications, and estimates of cost in competition for a new Courthouse to be located at Redwood City. The lot is 200 feet by 300 feet, forming a full block and known as the Courthouse Block.
The new building will face south on the 200-foot frontage.

There is now in place the foundations, basement walls, and dome the same having been constructed for the new Courthouse building recently demolished.

The Board leaves to the competing architects as much freedom in design and construction as is possible making only the following suggestions, subject however, to the use of present foundations, basement wall and dome now in place, so far as the same may be made practicable, in the construction of the proposed new building; the floor beams to be placed in a position not exceeding six-foot span; there also being now on hand, rescued from the wreck of the former building, a large amount of materials, consisting of stone veneer, wood work, brick, etc.; it being the desire to use as much of said materials as can be made serviceable in the new building; and special attention is hereby called to these matters.

The further suggestion is made that the rear portion of said building shall be made square instead of circular, as formerly, and that portion thereof extended for a distance of 14 feet further back; the building also to be supplied with conduits for gas, electricity, and telephone service (it being the intention to use an intercommunicating telephone system), and to be heated by a hot water system.

The building is to be of steel frame construction two stories high with basement, and constructed of brick with stone veneer, and built throughout with fire-proof materials, the basement to be the same as the present; the first story to be not less than 14 feet high; the second story to be not less than 15 feet high; foundation walls to be—thick; first story walls to be 21 inches thick and second story walls 17 inches thick. The building to be used for general county purposes; to contain the usual offices for conducting county official business, including a Board of Supervisors room and a Superior Court room. The cost of the building complete, excepting movable furniture, and not including the foundations, basement walls and dome, to be based on a total valuation of $125,000.00.

All designs, plans and specifications submitted to be drawn to a scale of one-eighth inch to one foot, and to be made and submitted on tracing cloth 25 by 30 inches in size; also six sets of blue prints of the same, together with type-written estimates of cost, permanently bound at the top and delivered flat. The drawings, plans and specifications must include a basement plan, first and second floor plan, a front and side elevation and cross-sections through the center of the building at right angles to the front and lon-gitudinally; also one perspective el-elevation of the south and west front-ages, together with six unmounted photographs or reproductions of the same to accompany and be bound with each set of blue prints. All designs, plans and specifications will be received and must be presented, and the designs, plans and specifications that may be accepted will be adopted, subject to the following conditions: That the designs, plans and specifications so accepted by said Board, together with the working drawings and specifications which will be made in connection therewith, shall be subject to competitive bids by contractors, and they, said designs, plans and specifications, must be so drawn that the accepted bid upon said designs, plans and specifications will be within the estimate of the architect drawing the same, and not to exceed the sum of $125,000.
In the event that the contract shall be let within the estimated sum of the architect whose plans have been so accepted, then and in that event, the successful architect so furnishing the said accepted designs plans and specifications will be awarded the contract for the furnishing of said designs, plans and specifications and the superintendency of said building to its final completion and acceptance, at a compensation of five per cent upon the contract price, and in addition thereto, a premium in the sum of $1,000.
It being distinctly understood that the architect drawing said designs, plans and specifications and presenting them to said Board, and said Board receiving and adopting the same shall not receive any compensation for so drawing said designs, plans and specifications and presenting them to said Board, unless the contract price is within his estimate, and said estimate not to exceed the sum of $125,000.00. The architect whose drawings, plans and specifications shall receive the second recommendation, shall be paid $400; the architect whose drawings, plans and specifications shall receive the third recommendation shall be paid $100. Said sums respectively shall be in full for all services rendered in the preparation of said designs, plans and specifications, and all other architects whose designs, plans and specifications that shall not be accepted and that shall not come within the first, second or third award, shall not be entitled to, and shall not receive any compensation or the services they may have rendered, or for the work performed in the preparation of said designs, plans and specifications.

All drawings, plans and specifications must be delivered to the Clerk of said Board of Supervisors on or before 10 o'clock a. m. of Monday, the 21st day of January, 1907. The Board reserves the right to reject any and all plans and designs that may be presented under this notice.
By order of said Board of Supervisors of the County of San Mateo, State of California.
Dated December 3, 1906.
H. W. SCHABERG,
Clerk of said Board.
